Kurobuta/Berkshire

Berkshire, also known as Kurobuta, or "Japanese Black Pig," is a heritage breed that descended from pigs that were a royal gift from England to Japan. This breed evolved in Japan and became known world wide as the finest, most marbled pork available. Our supplier, Heritage Berkshire, is a Iowa-based Cooperative of sustainable family farms that produces 100% Purebred Berkshires without any antibiotics, hormones, or steroids. This creates a marbled, darker meat with a larger, meatier flavor.
